A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRIEST

My dear parishioners,

On November 15, we will enter Christmas Lent. This lenten period will prepare us to celebrate the greatest miracle in the life of humankind, the Incarnation of the Word of God.

This pre-Christmas period should be a time of prayer and serious thought. We must contemplate the meaning of God taking a human form and entering our world. Despite the turmoil and demands in our lives, we must try and discern God's plan "By attentive prayer and silent meditation." It is not something that we can achieve overnight, says Archbishop Anthony Bloom, only gradually "as our will becomes trained and the concentration of our heart and mind improves, we will be able to spend whole days in prayer. This prayer will not be merely the prayer of daily life which cannot yet transform it, but a much more conscious, deeper prayer..."

Man is called to participate in God, without any confusion between his nature and that of God, without any diminution of his freedom. In the words of the late Father John Meyendorff, "On the contrary, it is in this communion that he finds, in total feeling of certainty of the heart, his own destiny, while continuing the fight against Satan, who until the day of Judgment retains power."

This complete attention is the essence of contemplative attitude and it is developed in the words of the Psalmist, "Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice! Let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication!" (Psalm 130: 1-2)

This Christmas season calls us beyond our everyday concerns to the deeper promise of Jesus Christ. Our Lord nurtures and expands the desires of our hearts as we grow in faith and love. From the depths of our hearts we pray to Him. "Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find," says Jesus Christ, encouraging us finally to ask for no less than the gift of "the Holy Spirit" (Luke 11:9,13), the very life of God in us! This is a Christmas gift to cherish.

Thus praying, we too like the Fathers of the Church and the Saints pouring out our hearts and feeling the presence of Jesus Christ, are transformed by Him in a union that He accomplishes for our salvation. This is a contemplative attitude. This attitude should permeate our whole life. This kind of prayer is not the exclusive property of the monk or the ascetic, or even the clergy. It is the very heart of the Orthodox faith, if you wish, the way of living the Orthodox faith, the Orthodox Ethos. It is the prayer and the transformation of every Christian who opens his or her heart to welcome the little babe of Bethlehem, Jesus Christ. This is the Christmas gift that God wants to give us.

I wish you with all my heart a very happy Thanksgiving and a spiritually transforming Christmas season. Amen.

With Christ's love,

Father Efstathios V. Mylonas
Protopresbyter

MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

Our festival held on September 17th, 18th, and 19th was a great success. I want to thank Charlie Christodoulelis and Nicholas Politis for doing such a terrific job co-chairing this event. As we all know, it takes a lot of dedication and hard work to put on the festival. Our profit from the festival was not as high as last year (our final count is not in yet), but I felt that everyone who attended really enjoyed themselves, and there were so many good comments on the food, booths and just the general appearance of the grounds. With the music outside under the tent, we were able to sit down and eat, and watch our children and everyone dance. Also, Friday night turned out to be better attended than we ever expected. All the kids had a great time in the fun zone. The weather was great. I want to thank everyone who chaired and worked in the many areas of the festival, before and during the three days, and to everyone who donated food and other items, to everyone who bought ads, to everyone who sponsored a booth, and to everyone who made a financial donation. We will be having a wrap up meeting in a few weeks to fine tune everything for next year.

Sunday School has begun, it is great to see all the kids. We have a great program under our coordinator, Irene Albeck, and all her dedicated staff. Our priest, Fr. Efstathios V. Mylonas conducted an excellent meeting with all the teachers on Sunday, October 31, 2004. I sat in the meeting and I was so impressed by everyone there. Very sharp and dedicated mothers who know how important these lessons are for all the children. They have good materials, books, and lesson plans to work from, and were having a discussion on some new activities that may take place this year. Don't forget the Turkey Raffle on Sunday, November 21, 2004. All the money raised goes to the Sunday School, and I believe this year the money will be going toward new desks for the classrooms. Moms N' Tots have begun their year which is headed by four of our mothers; Tanya Christodoulelis, Vicky Mowrey, Michele Prappas, and Helene Tripodis. I come every Wednesday morning at 10:00 with my grandson, so I know first hand how marvelous it is. Very well organized, inspirational songs and great crafts. It is a great program. How wonderful it would be if we could one day have our own nursery school here. This is a great start. Something to think about. On Sunday, October 23, the Greek School celebrated "Oxi Day" with a Greek School Program. The kids were great. They said poems and did a couple of short plays. Thank you to our director Anastasia McClain.

Our Pentahiliariko is in full gear. Elizabeth Spourdalakis and Ted Attalla are our chairpersons. The Pente will take place at the Pasadena Hilton on Saturday, March 5, 2005. The Pente will have a new look this year. More information will be coming.

Please don't forget about the General Assembly on Sunday, November 14, 2005, at 12:00 Noon. It really is important that everyone come. We need to approve the budget for 2005, nominate five parishioners to the Parish Council, nominate an election and audit committee, also there will be a short discussion on the building and expansion of our Hellenic Cultural Center. We need everyone's input. The elections will take place on Sunday, December 5, 2004. That day will also be Fair Share Sunday. A kickoff lunch for 2005.

Yes, it's time again for our annual Christmas Card. The Flyer is enclosed in the bulletin. It is a great way for you to send greetings to your friends and a great way to raise funds for the church.

Parishioners have been asking me about the 50th Anniversary Album. It is almost ready. Everyone has been so patient and the committee really appreciates it. You will be happy and believe me, the committee will be even happier when it is completed.

Thank you for all your support

We are deeply grateful to Chris and Katherine Julias and to Nick and Irene Mitsos for their most generous support of our Pentahiliariko. Their generosity has enabled the Pente Committee to offer you an exciting event you’ll never forget! Featuring the acclaimed 11 piece orchestra of Jan Sterling, an improved shorter raffle, fabulous prizes, and many more surprises in store. We also express our deep appreciation to an anonymous family for their most generous support toward the mosaic that soon will be installed by Sirio Tonelli in the apse of the Holy Altar of our Church. The annual Bible and History Tournament will take place on Saturday, December 4, 2004 from 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. at Saint George Antiochian Orthodox Church, 2098 Benson Ave., Upland, CA 91784, tel.: (909) 985-6844. Saint Anthony's youth will participate.

A Great Orthodox Radio Program

Come Receive the Light is aired every Saturday at 3:00 p.m. on KBRT 740AM. It started June 21, 2003. Saint Anthony's Church and our Philoptochos financially support the program. In a letter to subscribers, the Come Receive the Light staff writes: "We are grateful for your vision and progressive leadership which has helped Come Receive The Light bring the Fullness of Orthodoxy to your area."

"Campus Review"

Each year about 40,000 young Orthodox Christians head off to college. If each one of those Orthodox college students attended Divine Liturgy on Sunday, there would be at least 20 college students attending each Orthodox parish throughout our entire country. That is why The National Greek Orthodox Campus Ministry publishes the "Campus Review" for College students, to reach out to those Orthodox college students. Saint Anthony's Church and our Philoptochos financially support this very informative publication. You can subscribe and receive it without any financial obligation. Please write to : National Greek Orthodox Campus Ministry, P. O. Box 8243, Metairie, LA 70011. This is a special ministry that all of us should strongly support. If you wish to commit time and offer your services, call Fr. Stathis at (626) 449-6943. For more information or to get involved go to www.ocf.net or call (800) 919-IOCF.

South American FDF Cultural Mission Group

Congratulations to Maria Vorgias and Teresa Vorgias, who recently participated in FDF Cultural Mission to South America. The members of the group divided to visit Chile (Santiago and Antifagasto), Argentina (Cordoba and Buenos Aires), Uruguay (Montevideo). Each one of them was assigned to different family to stay with, in order to get used to what it might be like when they are in South America. The families to whom they were assigned were hand picked by Metropolitan Tarasios of South America. We congratulate Maria and Teresa for being such good missionaries representing our Church. The next FDF will take place on February 17 – 20, 2005 at the Ontario, CA Civic Center.

Philoptochos News

Philoptochos kept busy over the summer and is now back in full force as we enter the fall and winter months.

During the summer, two St. Anthony high school students were each awarded $1,000 Philoptochos scholarships for their college education expenses. George Tsianos and John Rigas are our two scholarship recipients. The St. Anthony community should be proud of the many accomplishments of these two young men and the outstanding recommendations from their teachers which accompanied their scholarship applications. We wish them well as they embark on their college years.

On August 15th, Philoptochos hosted a delicious luncheon following liturgy. Everyone who attended received an icon of the Panagia. Special thanks goes to Irene Albeck who chaired the event. Many thanks to Katherine Lucas and Teddi Efstathiou who helped prepare the day before along with Pantele Xanthos who once again acted as our chef. Of course, the day of the lunch many of our Philoptochos ladies offered invaluable assistance serving, cleaning and making sure that everything went well. Philoptochos thanks all of you who supported our efforts that day. Proceeds will benefit the many philanthropic endeavors that we take on during the year.

Our first general meeting of the year was a pot-luck held at the home of Charlene Vayos. We had a great turnout and so many delicious foods and deserts to enjoy. We thank Charlene for offering her home and we thank those of you who joined us for dinner. We encourage all women of the community to join Philoptochos. You can be involved as much as you would like. Even if you can only join us for a few meetings a year, we welcome your participation.

On October 10th, Philoptochos organized a team for the Walk for Hope, benefiting breast cancer research at City of Hope. It was a drizzly early morning but our team of ten people walked the 5K. Team members were Lisa Xanthos, Pantele Xanthos, Teddi Efstathiou, Dean Efstathiou, Maria Kokoris, Fontaine Malisos, Helen Skandale, Liz Skandale, Pam Buzas and John Buzas. Thanks to the efforts of Maria and Fontaine, we were able to raise almost $1,000. We hope that next year more parishioners will join us for the walk and help us to make a difference in the lives of so many touched by breast cancer.

Three amazing women took on the role of chairs for the Philoptochos Christmas Benefit Luncheon. Irene Albeck, Teddi Efstathiou and Katherine Lucas have been working hard to bring us yet another memorable event this December 11th at the Ritz-Carlton Huntington Hotel in Pasadena. Proceeds will benefit breast cancer research at City of Hope, Villa Esparanza and the Orthodox Senior Care Center Fund along with numerous other Philoptochos charities. Please be sure to join us as we celebrate the beauty of the Christmas season.

During the next few weeks Philoptochos will be circulating information about our holiday outreach projects. Some of the projects will be collecting non-perishable food for a food pantry and having our Christmas Wish tree where you can pick a wish tag and provide a special gift for someone. We will also be collecting shoes and socks as we have done each December. Philoptochos invites the parish to help us make Christmas a little more special for families in need. This is an opportunity to follow the example of our Lord, demonstrating love for all people.

May you and your families enjoy a blessed Christmas season.

Lisa Xanthos, Philoptochos President

Images of Childhood from the Classical Past

Images of Childhood from the Classical Past are on view at the Getty Center from September 14 – December 5, 2004. Coming of age is the first major show to explore the lives of children in ancient Greece, from their roles in the family to their pets, toys, religious rituals, and education. For more information call (310) 440-7360 or (310) 440-7300 or www.getty.edu.

“Both ancient Greek art and literature preserve many touching images of children that clearly convey to us the sorrows, fears, and joys that children experienced, the difficulties the encountered, and their growing awareness of the world around them (a fact of their increasing maturity). Life in the fifth and fourth centuries B.C. was not easy by any standard. The threats of warfare, hunger, and disease were constant sources of concern for families, and children were the most vulnerable victims of all the realities. At the same time, the Greeks appreciated the pleasures provided by life. The family unit was highly valued, and children generally enjoyed the loving protection of their elders. Like children today, children in ancient times were educated in reading, writing, music, and sports. They also loved having pets and playing games. Numerous celebrations that marked important religious festivals and rites of passage offered welcome relief from daily cares, and, as the source indicate, children often played important roles in these events.” In view at the Getty Center are also Byzantine Icons until December 5, 2004.
